PAT Analysts

Our goal at Brant Christian School is for our students in grades 6 and 9 when writing their provincial achievement test they will score the following: Acceptable 100%

Excellent 30 – 40%

For 2014-15 we came close to achieving our goal for the grade 6 students but greater effort and focus will be required in the grade 9 area.

Subject	Acceptable	Excellence	Below
LA6	100%	62.5%
SS6	75%	37.5%	25%
Ma6	100%	50%
Sc6	100%	50%
LA9	80%	0%	20%
SS9	60%	20%	40%
Ma9	100%	60%
Sc9	100%	0%

Upon reviewing our data, we believe our students are better readers than writers. Our F&P scores in both the Fall and Spring testing showed a high number of students reading at their grade level or higher. Written assignments by these same students did not meet teacher expectations. Problems in sentence structure, vocabulary, descriptive (lack) problems.

When comparing functional with narrative writing, grade 6 and 9 LA results showed that students were stronger in their narrative writing skills. We believe our students are quite creative and enjoy the narrative writing.

In terms of refining the skills of our students we will focus on the students improving their close reading for details and in the fluency of their reading. We find that some students are fragmented in their reading and we believe this is having a negative impact on their comprehension skills.

For subject areas that we see as weak; in the grade 6 class it is Social Studies. For our grade 9 students we were disappointed in the results in Language Arts and Social Studies.

Teachers report that the use of Literacy Place is helping our students in their skills. Next year's (2016/17) grade 9 class will be the first class to have had access to Literacy Place. We are anticipating an upward trend in our ELA scores.

For Social 6, this is the year for the grade 6 curriculum. In our split classes one year they cover the grade 5 curriculum with a grade 6 review at the end of the year. The other year the curriculum order is reversed.

- Greater use of PAT material to prep our students

- Earlier testing to identify students who are struggling
- Using F&P data from previous years to identify students who have had difficulty with reading.

DIP ANALYSIS

Because of Brant Christian's small grade 12 population, quantitative data is not readily available. We need to look at qualitative data to answer most of the questions required for this section.

A strength of the school is that a high number of our students are successful in completing their course work on time and passing the course. We are not happy with grades our students received in this year's diplomas. Out of four students, one had identical marks when comparing class marks to diploma marks, another was close and two had significant drops. All students were diligent in their day to day effort. Only one did the necessary preparation for the diplomas.

Problem Areas

- lack of experience in writing major tests
- Isolation in learning environment, non-traditional classroom does not allow for dialogue.
- Too much time in front of computer, dullness
- Lack of varied lessons

Areas to address

- Create more teacher led learning ie. Art, Band, Drama, CE and PE classes
- Increase the number of field trips to vary the opportunities to learn
- Provide more testing opportunities
- Offer workshops in test taking, exam preparation and stress reduction.
- Interscholastic sport teams have added more energy to the high school division. The teams allow the students to focus on something positive and generates greater school spirit.
- Major field trips such as the one last year to Ottawa and this year's trip to Tijuana help with students setting goals outside of the academic setting which allows for more variety for the students. It keeps things fresh rather than the same routine day after day.

On Site PD Days

For the January 29 and February 1 on site days I will be away with the high school students in Tijuana, Mexico.

Jan. 29 I would like to change this PD day to March 4 (evening) and all day on March 5 (Saturday). Staff will be attending a spiritually based conference in Calgary called "Be Ready" Please accept this as a request.

Feb. 1 Focus this day would be on improving the writing skills of our students and learning how to create greater continuity of skills from one grade level to another. We would be examining what rubrics are available to us and what we can create. We would also look how to approach various forms of writing. How best to teach these and the get students comfortable in writing in the various style. Teachers will have an opportunity to explore and use programs such as newsella and how best to use these in a class room setting. Part of the day would also be used to plan for a writer's symposium in May.

May 24 Outline for that day would be to look at accountability pillar results and to examine specifically any significant changes. We would also look at what we want our school goals to be for 2016/17. We would also be discussing teaching assignments for next year and if any of the staff is looking for a change in grade or subject assignments
